

WHAT WE DO:

Challah for Hunger's goal is to eliminate hunger in South Florida and across the country by baking and selling challah bread.

Student volunteers give back to the community, learn about Jewish culture, and form lasting friendships.

Volunteers bake and sell challah bread on campus to raise money for JCS of South Florida's Kosher food Bank and M.A.Z.O.N: A Jewish Response to Hunger.

GET INVOLVED:

1. JOIN US ON FACEBOOK:

Request to be a member of the "University of Miami Challah for Hunger Volunteers" Facebook group.

2. SIGN UP TO VOLUNTEER:

Fill out the Google Doc with your weekly availability. (no prior baking experience needed)

3. BAKE AND SELL CHALLAH:

Learn how to bake challah bread and help raise money for JCS of South Florida's Kosher food Bank and M.A.Z.O.N: A Jewish Response to Hunger.

3. MEET NEW PEOPLE:

Volunteer, meet and hang out with other student members and form lasting friendships!